CLASS TEACHER (full time) MPS + Fringe

Start date: September 2025

Do you want to join an amazing School? Do you believe in a holistic approach to teaching children, where all successes are celebrated? Do you believe that all children can succeed no matter what?

You will:

- be an enthusiastic and creative teacher,
- have experience and a passion for Early Years (desired)
- be able to deliver high standards of learning and teaching through your good to outstanding classroom practice,
- have excellent communication skills to work in partnership with children, staff, parents and outside agencies,
- have a strong desire to 'make a positive difference'.
- have viewed our School website and want to be a part of what we believe

We can offer:

- a place where children are at the centre of everything we do,
- happy, friendly and well behaved children who want to learn and achieve,
- a supportive and positive learning environment,
- experienced learning support assistants,
- a well-resourced working environment,
- commitment to your career development.
- An excellent OFSTED inspection.
- A School that's been given numerous awards in recognition of its contribution to the wellbeing of children, staff and the community.
- An outward looking school that works in partnership with many others.
- A school where staff say they like working here, can manage their workload and feel their wellbeing is considered.
