

Singing

Ode to Joy—
create actions to go with the words.=

Year 2 - Spring 2 - Music Knowledge Organiser— Roll Over Beethoven

Listening

Focus on music composed by Beethoven

- *Moonlight Sonata
- *Symphony No 5
- *Für Elise
- *Ode to Joy

Performance

Listen to a wide range of music from around the world, live performances from different musicians.

Work for a performance to be filmed for the app.

Wider Listening/ Skills

- *Recorder lessons. Continue to learn G and focus on making a solid tone.
- *Create answering phrases using the theme from Symphony no 5 on the recorder.
- *Sing or play own instrument in an agreed way and at agreed times in group performance
- *Use symbols to show who plays what, when (and how) as an 'aide memoire' Use this notation to remind them of what they decided to do in a previous lesson

Key Vocabulary

: Instrumental families, instrument, wind, string, percussion, brass. Body percussion, opinion, musical cues, leader, conductor, notes, tune, pattern, rhythmic pattern, melody, composition.

Fun Facts— Ode to Joy—Beethoven

- *It was the last of Beethoven's symphonies, completed three years before his death in 1824.
- *It premiered in Vienna on May 7, 1824.
- *By the time of its premier Beethoven was completely deaf.
- *It is the first symphony to incorporate vocal soloists and chorus 60

